Coastal Flood Resilience Review 2024
A report of the Department of Coastal Affairs

Summary of findings

The review surveyed forty coastal councils between 2019 and 2023.

Councils that combined sea walls with restored salt marsh saw flood damage fall by a third.

Sea walls alone did not reduce flood damage over the period.